MRS. MINNIE M. MARTIN

HARROWSMITH — After a brief illness, the death of Mrs. Minnie M. Martin occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Wallace. She was 85 years of age, and her lifetime had been spent in this district.

Deceased was the wife of the late Edgerton Martin of Sydenham, and her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. John Amey, the latter formerly Irene Snider.

After the death of her husband 25 years ago, Mrs. Martin divided her time among her daughters. She was a member of Grace United Church, Sydenham, and the Woman's Association.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. J. A. Babcock (Floss), and Mrs. George Watson (Pearl) of Sydenham; Mrs. Everett Huffman, (Clara) and Mrs. William Wallace (Ila), of Harrowsmith; and Mrs. Clifford Redden (Frances) of Cataraqui; 8 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. She was predeceased by a daughter, Mrs. M. Redden (Edna) in 1948, two brothers and three sisters.

Funeral was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, with Mr. W. J. Ten Hoopen, student minister, conducting the service. Interment was in Sydenham Cemetery.

Pall-bearers were S. Alexander, George Davey, Fred Ruttan, Clifford Deare, Garnet Shillington and Gordon Ellerbeck.

Flower bearers were Earl Martin, Ralph Martin, Stephen Amey, Douglas Amey, Howard Amey, Clarence Redden, Everton Redden, Fred Ellerbeck and George Deare.

Relatives attending the funeral from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin of Buffalo, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin of Attica, N.Y., also a number from Kingston, and surrounding communities.

There are 15 members who have namesakes in the house. They include Trade and Commerce Minister Howe and Marvin Howe, Progressive Conservative, Wellington Huron; and Hon. C. G. Power, Liberal, Quebec South, and James A. Power, Liberal, St. John's West.

C. G. Power, air minister during the last war, is the dean of the Commons. He has been a member since 1917. The oldest member is Rev. Dan McIvor, Liberal, Fort William, who was 81 last Feb. 14.

The surnames of the House membership start with every letter in the alphabet except four. They are I., O., U. and X.

The letter Q is represented by Victor Quelch, Social Credit, Acadia; V by Fernand Viau, Liberal, St. Boniface; Phillipe Valois, Liberal, Argenteuil-Deux-Montagnes; George Villeneuve, Liberal, Rob-

Pioneer Settler as early as 1685-6

Nicholas Enigh is credited with being the first settler. He came to America with Robert Livingston in 1683, and in 1685 located his wife at Fishkill, subsequently buying lands in the Clove District from the Rombout patentees. While living at Fishkill, they became the parents of a daughter, the first white child born in the county. She received the name of Katrina and at maturity married a young Hollander named Peter Lasink, who located in the county previous to 1700. The young couple settled in the town of East Fishkill where 4 sons and 4 daughters were born to them.

PAST PERFORMANCES and prevailing conditions pre-sage a keen battle when the Peterborough Eagles and Kingston SACs meet in the Community Memorial Centre tonight. Although the Eagles trail the field they are only two points behind the locals and four away from second place, now held by the Belleville Hawks. The surprising Petes, who now lead alone in the tightly-waged senior 'B' group, invade the Moira River city this evening and could cause a bit of consternation by extending their lead to four points.

When it is considered that the SAC management had to start from scratch in rebuilding the team it must be apparent that the task was placed in capable hands with Wally Elmer as the manager and Stan Scrutton the coach. The other three clubs had no such trying problems to solve but now with the New Year just around the corner the plucky locals are within hailing distance of the top rung on the ladder.

Attendances in the Centre haven't been up to expectations but a rapid change for the better is now anticipated. The SACs have earned stronger support. The team is composed mainly of Kingston players who were enlisted for service in a dire emergency. Although the management was granted permission to bring in a large number of imports that plan was found not feasible under existing circumstances and thereof the die was cast in favor of the home-brews.

The SACs have one advantage that no other club can match in that the former play their home games in one of the most costly and attractive arenas in the country. There the fans can sit in comfort, the while each gets an

City of New York the sum of $100.00

1844

Mr. Nicholas Amey had the next farm above (Cone. 1, Lot )
He and his wife have been dead many years. His wife was a Stover. They had a large family.

Their son John married a Miss Asselstine.

Abraham married Miss Charity Sager

David married a daughter of Jeremiah Snider

Joseph has been married four times; first, Sarah Smith, daughter of Mr. Parker Smith; second, Phebe Combs, third Catharine Baker, daughter of Frederick Baker;
fourth, Elizabeth Baker, sister of the third.
He lives on the old farm.

Peter married Mary Baker

Nicholas married Mary Snider, daughter of Abraham Snider.

One of the daughters married John Snider, Senr.

Another married John Asselstine

The east half of Lot No. 32 was owned by John Sager. He died at an early period of the settlement; he left a number of daughters and one son. The latter died in his youth. One daughter, Catharine, married Mr. Henry (?) Pultz. Charity married Abraham Amey.
Hannah married Henry Storms. Sany married Jacob Zimmerman, and Sarah married John Brown. The farm is now owned by James Galloway.

Rev. Wigant. The next farm has been occupied by various persons.
Mr. Wigant, a Lutheran minister owned it for some time. Afterwards Mr. Abraham Amey, who still resides on it.

Mr. John Mabee lived next above. He married Barbara Hufferdail.
He sold to Abraham Amey and moved to Ithaca.

Dear Mac B.

Thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I think you made a mistake in the price of the Tetracycline
Mrs Beazer & I thought it should be more, if so let us know & we will pay the difference.

If you remember there was one hundred of <sup>the</sup> price was only four dollars so let me know.

And thanks again for being just you.

Deaths and funerals

GEORGE M. AMEY

Lennox and Addington County native George M. Amey, 59, of 32 Court street, Lancaster, N.Y., who died in hospital there following a heart seizure, was buried in Lancaster.

He was born at Desmond, a hamlet in Lennox and Addington County, a son of the late Ernest Leroy Amey and his wife, the former Hatie E. Kitson.

Mr. Amey was employed as a roofing contractor. He attended the United Methodist Church and was, for a 10-year-period, a member of the board of directors of the Depew-Lancaster Boys' Club.

He was also a member of the Masonic Order, Lodge 23 at Lancaster, and a Shriner.

Surviving are his wife, the former L. Marion Wilcott; three sons, Dennis, Brooklyn, N.Y.; David, who resides in California; Grant, Lancaster; a daughter, Leah Amey, Lancaster; a brother, Leroy K. Amey, Cleveland, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Betty Danney, Lancaster, and five grandchildren.

Both his parents and a step-mother, Jean Grant Amey, predeceased him.

Burial in Moscow

Stephen Arney

Mr. Stephen Arney, one of the old residents of the Township of Camden, passed away somewhat suddenly after a year's illness. The funeral took place from St. Luke's church on June 8th, being conducted by the rector, Rev. G. E. B. Radcliffe, assisted by a good choir. There was a large congregation present to show respect to his memory. The pall bearers were near friends of the deceased. He leaves a widow and daughter and grand children to mourn his loss. They have the sympathy of the neighborhood. Deceased was highly respected in the community.

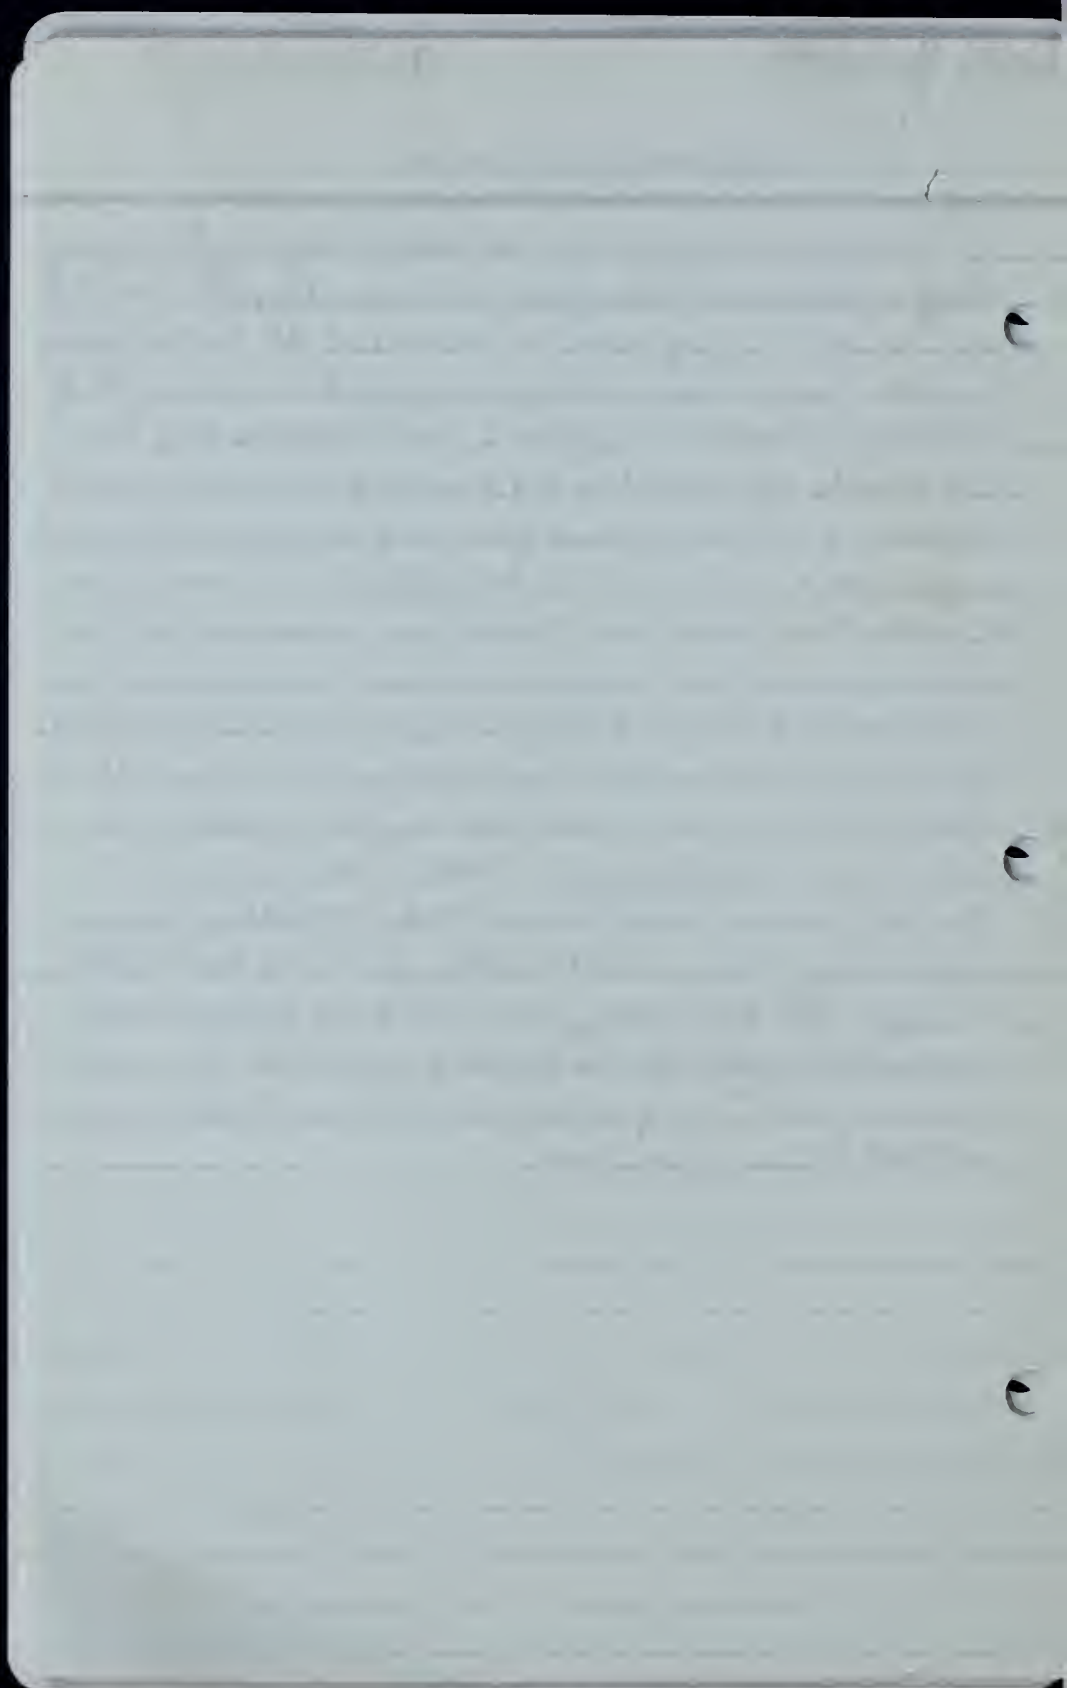

? Was he grandson of Amos Arney
and son of George Arney who died
26 Jan 1862 ?

* great grandson of Peter Arney of Ernesttown ?

of Township of Camden

The funeral of the late Mr. Fred Amey, of the Township of Camden, took place Sunday, Feb. 28th, amidst universal signs of regret & sorrow, at St. Luke's church, Camden East, when a large congregation composed of relatives, friends & neighbors, assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased, who was a good neighbor, a warm genial friend & consequently much respected & esteemed in the district & vicinity, and by all who knew him. Seats were reserved for the mourners and the Chosen Friends. In addition to the beautiful Burial Office of the Church of England, three hymns were well rendered by the organist & choir, & a sermon preached by the rector, the Rev. C. E. S. Radcliffe, from Psalm 139, verses 23 & 24. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hort, McCarthy, Cyrus Edgar, Geo. Riley, Robt. Coulter, Donald He & Willie Pringle. Mr. Denwoody conducted the funeral. Much sympathy is felt for the parents & friends in their sad bereavement. "May eternal rest be his, & light perpetual shine upon him."

Dr. H. C. Burleigh, President
Bath Historical Society
Bath, Ontario, Canada

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Your letter about the Amey family has been forwarded to me by The Hartford Times. I believe that I can supply you with some of the information that you want.

Johan Nicholas Emigh, first of this line in this country was a Palatine. His name appears (as Johan Niclaus Emich) in the list of "Palatine Heads of Families", dated June 1/10-Sept 1/14, as printed in MacWethy's "The Book of Names". Most of his children were baptized in Lutheran Churches.

His wife was Anna Catherine Muller. They lived in Dutchess Co., N. Y. where on the earliest tax list, dated 1/ Jan. 1/18, appears the name of "Nicolae Eemeig". He was of Beekman.

Their children were:

- i Anna Maria b. 22 April 1/13 mar. Peter Lossing, Jr.
- ii John bapt. 7 April 1/17 (See below)
- iii ~~La~~urence b. 6 Feb. 1719; mar. Anna Maria Booken
- iv Johan Nicholas b. 30 Nov. 1/20; mar. Eve
- v Henry bapt. 29 July, 1/22 mar. Sarah Flagler
- vi Philip mar. Gertrude Lossing
- vii Eva mar. Peter Janson
- viii Hans Jury bapt. 2 April 1/27 mar. Eva
- ix Catherine bapt. 21 Sept. 1/29

John (2) Emigh (son of Johan Nicholas -1) was born either in Ulster or in Dutchess Co., N. Y. He was christened in the Kingston (Ulster Co.) Dutch Church, on the 7 April 1/17.

On 7 Aug. 1/45 "Johannis Emeg" married "Annettje de Langen" in the Fishkill Dutch Church. She was the daughter of Jonas De Lange and Blandina Peerson De Lange. They moved to the Halimoon district of Saratoga County, N. Y., "probably a few years before the Revolutionary War." There John Emig died on 24 May 1801. He was buried two miles southwest of Mechanicville, Saratoga County, N. Y., his stone bearing the above death date as well as his age - 55 years. His will was proved 25 June 1801 at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

It names all ten of his children.

Jonas (2) Amey (John -2, Johan Nicholas-1) (Note change of spelling of name), was b. in Dutchess Co., N. Y.

Documents show that he lived in Saratoga, Albany Co., N. Y.; joined the British army in 1776 and served until the end of the war. He was a guide for Gen. Burgoyne. His wife was Eva (possibly Blaker?) He made a petition in 1834. d. Nov. 25, 1836

Their children were:

- cc i Rachel mar. Abraham Snider
- cc ii Eva mar. Christian Abrams
- cc iii Sarah (of Ernesttown, spinster in 1808)
- iv Jonas mar. Elizabeth Boice 5 Oct. 1809
- cc v Joseph mar. Elizabeth Snibley
- vi David mar. Hannah Boice 5 April 1811
- cc vii Israel mar. Elizabeth Thomas; d. 18 Feb. 1800
- cc viii Hannah bapt. 4 Sept. 1709; mar. David Boice
- cc ix John bapt. 4 Sept. 1709; mar. Elizabeth Hogie; d. 17 Dec. 1861

Nicholas (2) Amey (John -2, Johan Nicholas -1), was b. 1 Dec. 1748 in Dutchess Co., N. Y. He made application for land as an United Empire Loyalist on 30 Sept. 1787. He had lived at Saratoga. Lived at Mashishe in 1783.

Paper in the Canadian Archives dated 19 Feb. 1813 states that he had been settled on the East half of Lot $20 now #21 in the 1st concession of Ernesttown since the first settlement of the Province. He apparently bought considerable land there between 1798 and 1811. d. Feb. 10, 1836 (John C. Clark Diary 1831-1864)

According to his Bible, he married Margaret Stover in 1769. Their children were:

- cc i Elizabeth b. 16 Sept. 1770 in Albany Co., N. Y. mar. John Snider
- cc ii John b. 10 Oct. 1772 mar. Mary Grant

All of this information is from a MS sent to me by Mr. Clifford M. Buck of Salt Point, N. Y. It had been prepared by Mr. George Olin Zabriskie. I have not copied all details but hope that what I am sending will be helpful to you.

What I am trying to do is to locate possible parents for my great grandmother, Mary Amy (or Amey or Ami or Emigh or Eighma) who, according to a note left by a grandson, was b. Nov. 12, 1719 in Mendon, Montgomery Co., N. Y., and d. in Hornby, Steuben Co., N. Y. on Oct. 28, 1854. Her gravestone confirms the date of birth, since it records that she was 74 yr, 11 mo & 16 days of age. However, I believe that she must have been born in Minden, not Mendon, since the only Mendon that I can find in New York State was in Monroe Co., which place was not settled in 1779. Moreover, I believe that Mary Amy and William Easterbrooks were mar. in 1798 in Minden or Danube, then in Montgomery Co. I have been unable to connect her with the Amey families who removed to Ernesttown. The names of her older children (those not Easterbrooks names) included Daniel, George, Mary, Charity, and John, which are good Emigh names. I have been unable to find any parents for her. If this was a correct place of birth for her, it will be hard to trace unless I get a lucky break for the records are incomplete for this period during which the countryside was ravaged by the Indians and the British. Well, someday I may get a break.

Cordially yours,

(Mrs. G.A.) Georgiana H. Randall

P.S. Do you know where or how I could get a map of Ontario which would show the section included in Norfolk Co., north of Lake Erie? My grandfather, Henry P. Smith, rafted logs from that region in 1845-60. They lived at Walsingham - near Port Rowan.
